Kuwait Little Theater documentary film

In March, Panorama Pictures is making a documentary film about the theatre's history. This is a great opportunity for the theatre and we are hugely excited to have KLT 60 years of theatrical activities in Kuwait combined into a short film. We are calling on any past members with pictures or video (especially video) of productions pre 1994 to please get in touch. We desperately want to find some archive footage of early productions. We also need some people to be interviewed on camera about their involvement with KLT as well as one male and one female 'actor' to do voice over for the documentary. If you are keen to get involved please let us know. Filming will take place in early March at the theatre and post production later in the month.

HOROSCOPES

Aries: March 21 - April 19
A challenging aspect from Chiron, the planet of healing, will move in to influence your mood today. This won't necessarily be a bad thing, although it won't feel like a picnic, but if someone undermines you or shakes your confidence, calmly and quietly put them straight; you'll be glad you did!

Taurus: April 20 - May 20
Today will be pretty much a continuation of yesterday, with that curious mixture of shyness and ability to have fun bringing out the best in you. You might also feel in quite a romantic mood as well so make sure you're looking your best and be prepared for anything!

Gemini: May 21- June 21
Oh dear, work or school pose problems today thanks to the influence of the moon, which is causing the potential for some confusion in your life. Your judgment won't be as sharp as it could be, which could cause some embarrassing but potentially amusing misunderstandings!

Cancer: June 22 - July 22
Be on your guard against anger today. The influence of the moon may cause you to feel increasingly impatient in relation to some family tensions. Although it may be difficult for you there is a need to learn the benefit of patience and of being prepared to see other points of view!

Leo: July 23 - August 22
Some negative influences around you could give rise to some tension between two key areas in your everyday life: your family, and your friends. There is a definite lack of balance that you need to resolve; if a family member doesn't approve of one of your friends, or vice versa, you'll need to restore some peace!

Virgo: August 23 - September 22
Today is definitely a day for pampering yourself as the day to day routine has probably been just a little too overwhelming for you. In order to cope, plan an evening of a scented bath by candlelight followed by a massage in order to soothe away the stresses of the last few days!

Libra: September 23 - October 22
A couple of negative aspects from the moon suggest that you'll need a bit of a rethink on romantic matters whether you're single or attached! The feeling that you need to please someone will be strong today. However, the planets suggest that you should stay true to yourself today!

Scorpio: October 23 - November 21
A clash between the planets, suggests that you're not going to be at your best today. The need to assert yourself could cause some friction with friends, unless you give vent to that burst of fiery energy in a more constructive way. A session down the gym would work wonders!

Sagittarius: November 22 - December 21
A negative influence in your chart could see you either taking on someone else's problems or taking on extra work in one form or another. This is not an ideal way to spend the day, least of all for a fun loving sign like you, so be fair but firm if someone tries to apply the pressure!

Capricorn: December 22 - January 19
There are times when once you get your teeth into something you won't let go, no matter what, and thanks to Jupiter, today could be one of those times. You'll think that you're in the right and are likely to go to enormous lengths to prove it, but is it really worth all that energy, Capricorn?

Aquarius: January 20 - February 18
A minor but negative influence from the sun is advising you to be clear about what you want in terms of romance today. Whether you're single or attached it could seem as though you've been unable to take control, but now you finally have the opportunity to set the rules!

Pisces: February 19 - March 20
Today you might be feeling a little less articulate and you might feel that your wise inner voice has deserted you! Even worse you might find that you are struggling to resolve some kind of conflict between your heart and your head. The best thing you can do is not make any major decisions for now and just take it easy!
